1. Understand the Rules

Begin by reviewing the official UIL rules and guidelines. Familiarize yourself with the line limits, language requirements, and judging criteria. This knowledge will help you avoid disqualification and shape your creative process.

2. Choose Your Theme Wisely

Select a theme that resonates deeply with you. Authentic passion translates into powerful poetry. Consider topics such as:

- Identity and cultural heritage
- Love and relationships
- Environmental concerns

Reading classic Spanish poets such as Federico García Lorca, Pablo Neruda, and Octavio Pazcan provide inspiration and insight into effective language use.

- Write a 5 line poem each day.
- Revise one poem every week.

5. Seek Feedback

Share your poems with teachers, peers, or Spanish language clubs. Constructive criticism is invaluable. Use the following feedback framework:

Since the UIL may include a performance component, practice reading your poem aloud. Focus on:

- Pronunciation of complex words
- Pauses for dramatic effect
- Emotional delivery
- Clear enunciation to ensure judges understand every word

Sample Poems for Inspiration

Below are two original sample poems that illustrate different styles and themes. Feel free to adapt their structure, imagery, or language for your own work.

Sample 1: Free Verse – “El Eco del Río”

El río murmura su historia entre piedras que guardan secretos.
Sus aguas, espejo de la luna, reflejan sueños de niños que
nunca dejaron de creer.
El viento lleva susurros de maravillas a los que escuchan el latido de la tierra.
Bajo el cielo, la vida
se desenvuelve, tranquila, en un eterno abrazo de agua y esperanza.

Sample 2: Sonnet – “El Tiempo”

Tiempo, que en tu danza sin fin, cautivas mi alma, mi corazón.
Eres fuego que alumbra el jardín,
y brisa que calma la aflicción.
Tus sombras se alargan, se desvanecen,
y la luz vuelve a nacer sin cesar.
Yo, viajero de tus caminos,
aprendo a vivir sin temer.

El reloj marca el paso lento,
pero tu presencia es un canto eterno.
En cada instante, mi ser se siente con la fuerza de un nuevo amanecer.
